FOUNDER MESSAGE

Beloved Esteemed Donors, Colleagues, Government Officials, Volunteers, Staff Members, and Citizens,

Heartiest Greetings.
It is with immense pleasure and profound gratitude that I present the Annual Report of Akshaya Trust for the year 2025–2026.

The true measure of a civilized society lies not merely in its economic prosperity, but in the compassion, it extends to those who are abandoned, deprived of support, and left vulnerable. It is this conviction that laid the very foundation of Akshaya Trust.

Many elders who sacrifice the prime of their lives to their families and to the society find themselves - at a time when they deserve rest, peace, comfort, and care - facing the harsh realities of desertion and solitude. Our mission is to provide them not just a shelter, but a loving home where they embrace dignity, respect, safety, camaraderie, and renewed hope.
The elders at Akshaya Trust are not beneficiaries but the members of our family. Their smile, peace of mind, and the sense of belongingness they rediscover are the greatest blessings and boon bestowed upon us.

Beyond the care for the elderly, we also regard it as our moral obligation to support the education of children from economically deprived backgrounds. We firmly believe that investing in a child's education today is an investment for a sturdier, empathetic, and a more unbiased society for generations to come.

Akshaya Trust does not generate profitable revenue. Every service we render is sustained entirely through the generosity of your contribution. Your support is transformed into a nourishing meal, a life-saving medicine, a safe shelter, and compassionate care. Most importantly, it restores faith in humanity to those whose lives have been marked by neglect and despair.

Your support is our strength,
Your concern is the very breath of our service,
Your kindness is the lifeline for countless lives that would otherwise remain neglected...

As we continue the journey of this noble mission, built upon the enduring values of transparency, integrity, accountability, and compassion, we remain deeply conscious of the trust you have placed in us. To all of you, who has walked beside us thus far and to those whose continued confidence inspires us to venture further I firmly record here my heartfelt gratitude with deep emotion and sincere appreciation.

‘அன்பின் வழியது உயிர்நிலை அஃதிலார்க்கு என்புதோல் போர்த்த உடம்பு’ — Thirukkural
May this sacred journey of Akshaya Trust continue, unceasing and unwavering, for as long as the spirit of compassion inundates from you.
With sincere gratitude and best regards,

G Gopalan
Founder & Managing Trustee
